2 Kakurin-ji Temple (Seishoko)

Dedicated to Lord Kato Kiyomasa, this temple has been well-known since the Edo period as "Seisho-ko-sama" (this name uses another pronunciation for the characters of "Kiyomasa"). Each year on May 4-5 a "kachi mamori" charm containing iris leaves is awarded during the Seisho-ko Festival. These charms signify overcoming the troubles of life by drawing on Seisho-ko's luck in battle.

3 Minato City Local History Museum

This multipurpose complex, with the Local History Museum at its heart, is housed in the preserved and restored former Institute of Public Health, which was built in 1938. The façade was created in the Gothic style, and is covered in scratch tile (which have vertical grooves). This style is known as "Uchida Gothic," named after its designer, Yoshikazu Uchida.

6 SENGAKUJI Temple

This temple is the family temple of the Asano Clan, rulers of Ako Domain during the Edo period. Graves on the site include those of Asano Naganori and his wife, Yozei-in. The death of Asano Naganori (titled Takumi no Kami) set off the events leading to the Chushingura, the incident involving the Ako Gishi (known abroad as the 47 ronin), and their graves are also in the temple grounds.
