Let's Play at Nursery Schools!

Let's Play at Nursery Schools events are held by public nursery schools in order to support local families with children. They are held for children who have not yet entered nursery schools and their parents/guardians. For about one hour in the morning, participants can play together with nursery school teachers and other children, and try out nursery school lunches. Parents can also receive information and individual counseling on childcare from nursery school staff. Some nursery schools even open their playgrounds to the general public. Contact each nursery school directly to register and request further information.

❏ Why is the program nicknamed COCO?

CO is a prefix meaning "with," or "together." The nickname COCO came about as a way of expressing the program's aim of supporting childcare by connecting children ("kodomo," or in this case "codomo") with other children, as well as connecting parent/guardians with each other.

Chii-Bus - Minato City Community Bus

Q Community Transportation Subsection, Community Transportation Section ☎ 3578-2279

The City began operating Chii-Bus, the Minato City community bus, in October 2004.

Currently, the bus has eight routes: the Tamachi Route, the Akasaka Route, the Shiba Route, the Azabu East Route, the Azabu West Route, the Aoyama Route, the Takanawa Route, and the Shibaura Konan Route. All Chii-Bus buses are barrier-free and wheelchair-friendly, and their decorations, based on designs submitted by students from elementary and junior high schools along the bus routes, are definitely worth a look. Make use of the Chii-Bus and its cheaper fares for your outings.

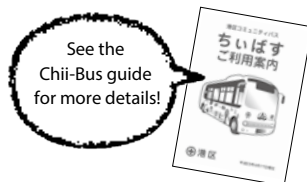

Fare:

One trip: 100 yen for everybody elementary school age or older

*If you transfer onto another bus route, you will need to pay 100 yen for each route.

*The bus is free to use for pre-elementary school children. However, a fare will be charged from the third rider onward for (1) Groups of only pre-elementary school children or (2) Pre-elementary school children who are accompanying a rider/riders of elementary school age or older.

*You cannot use the Seniors' Bus Discount Card (Silver Pass) to ride this bus.

About the Chii-Bus Nickname and Logo

The nickname "Chii-Bus" and the logo were established after a public appeal for ideas. The nickname comes from the Japanese words for "small bus" ("chiisai bus") and "local" ("chiiki").
